SENATOR ATWELL FAVORS PASSAGE OF SPICER BILL

His Vote With That Of Senator Lamb Will Insure Passage In The Senate

Repeals Longworth Act Which Would Please Thousands of Electors Over the State Especially the Farmer.

Columbus, Feb. 18.—Senator W. L. Atwell, of Licking county, author of the initiative and referendum resolution, has unexpectedly declared in favor of the Republican program of passing the Spicer bill to repeal the Longworth law which provides that political parties may endorse and place under their party emblems on the official ballot, constitutional amendment propositions.

"The passage of the Spicer bill will not defeat the initiative and referendum resolution if the people want it," said Senator Atwell. "I believe that constitutional amendments should not be made party questions. Unless good reasons are advanced to convince me that I am wrong, I shall vote to repeal the Longworth law."

The attitude of Senator Atwell is vastly significant and his vote, together with that of Senator Lamb, of the Toledo Independent, who is also of the opinion that constitutional

SNELL JURY UNABLE TO AGREE ON VERDICT

Clinton, Ill., Feb. 18.—The jury in the Snell $2,000,000 case was discharged by Judge Cochran late yesterday, being unable to reach a verdict. Richard Snell, the contestant, announced that he will ask for a new trial of the case at the May term of court. The last ballot stood eight for the contestant to four for the proponents of the will.

The suit to break the will of Colonel Thomas Snell was brought by the aged and eccentric millionaire's son, Richard Snell, of Clinton, Ill. It has been rife with sensationalism, chief of which were the "Snell letters," written by women and young girls to the old man, who was willing to pay lavishly for being loved and for being told so in affectionately worded epistles in which appeals for money mingled with expressions of endearment. Among the

SAFE CRACKERS ARE AGAIN AT WORK

Safe at N. Y. Finance Company Blown and Robbed of $241 Early This Morning

Third Safe Blown Within a Month--Windows are Shattered by Force of Explosion of Nitro-Glycerine Used.

For the third time within a month safe crackers worked in Newark and the New York Finance company, located over the Besanceney & Henneberg furniture store on East Park Place, were the victims. Nitro-glycerine was used and $241 was secured from the safe, which was blown to pieces. The windows of the office were blown out and a piece of the safe was blown through the floor and the steel ceiling of the Besanceney & Henneberg store. The job was done at 3:15 o'clock and was heard by Councilman Joseph Kuster, who was the first to arrive on the scene.

Manager G. R. Grindle of the company locked the safe and office at 5:30 Monday night, and no one was in the office after supper. No lights were seen in the office until the explosion occurred. Mr. Kuster was sitting in his cafe and restaurant when he heard the crash and he ran to the door at once. It was hard to locate the sound, but thinking it came from the East Side of the Square he went in that direction. Officers Burke then came running up, closely followed by Officer McClure, who was patrolling the south side of the park.

Glass was found on the sidewalk and flashing light pocket lights to the second story of the building, the windows of the New York Finance company were seen to be out. The three men, the officers with drawn revolvers, dashed up the stairs to the south of the furniture store, and burst open the door of the office. Everything was found in confusion, the safe door, lying in two sections, blown apart by the force of the explosive used. The piece of the safe placed beside the safe, was lying on the floor, and soot covered the floor. A big hole was knocked in the floor a little to the left of the safe, and a piece of the steel vault was sticking in it. It protruded through the ceiling of the furniture store below in the big display window and almost struck a big are light that is used to illuminate the window. Had it fallen through it would have struck a valuable oak dining room table and probably ruined it.

A hatchet had been used in the attempt to batter the combination from the safe door, but this effort failed. The hatchet, a new one, a screw driver and a piece of lead pipe, probably used to pour the nitro-glycerine through, were found on top of the safe, of the the Hall-Martin Safe company make. The door at the bottom of the safe near the lower hinge, was bent, and this is where the charge was placed. Every movable thing was taken out of the north room where the safe stood, and placed in the south room, or private office of the company by the thieves. The stove pipe was found on the floor in one corner and was undoubtedly taken down before the charge was set off, the robbers evidently trying to make as little noise as possible.

Both the front windows in the room had been raised, and the glass in the four sashes was shattered and fell to the sidewalk. Soap, used to fill the cracks before the liquid was poured into the safe, was splattered on the opposite side of the room, some even sticking to the walls of the next room, a distance of about twelve feet. On the landing in the hall was found a rubber boot and in the boot was a half pint whiskey bottle holding an ounce or two of the terrible explosive. The bottle was placed in the boot with the intention of deadening the shock as much as possible so there would be no danger of an explosion from this source.

As the back door of the Besanceney & Henneberg store was found unlocked Tuesday morning, and the door from the second floor of the store, opening into the hall beside the door of the Finance office was standing open entrance and exit was standing made in this manner by the thieves. As the door to the office was locked and forcibly broken open by the officers, it is probable that the safe

Twin Sisters, Hale and Hearty at 73

Mrs. Emma Shively and Mrs. Belle Beatty, twin sisters, who are now 73 years of age, enjoy health and strength, and seldom have an ache or pain, thanks to the God-given medicine, Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

Mrs. Emma Shively resides at Big Clifty, Ky., and Mrs. Belle Beatty at Louisville, Ky. The illustration is taken from late photographs and shows how bright and vigorous they both are.

MRS. EMMA SHIVELY AND MRS. BELLE BEATTY, TWIN SISTERS, 73 YEARS OLD.

"I am in my 73d year and preserve my health and keep my strength up by using Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. Have been using it for several years. As a tonic for old age I consider it without an equal."—MRS. EMMA SHIVELY, Big Clifty, Ky., Feb. 28th, 1907.

"Before I began the use of your Duffy's Malt Whiskey last May I was so run down and nervous I could not walk a square; after taking several bottles I became strong and felt better than I did for years, so I have been using it ever since, and I now seldom ever have an ache or a pain. I am 73 years old."—MRS. BELLE BEATTY, 1731 15th St., Louisville, Ky.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ of the seed and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a pale malt, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture its palatability and freedom from injurious substances renders it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

If you wish to keep young, strong and vigorous and have on your cheeks the glow of perfect health, take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey regularly, according to directions. It is dangerous to fill your system with drugs. They poison the body and depress the heart, while Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey tones and strengthens the heart action and purifies the entire system. It is recognized as a medicine everywhere. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has been analyzed and tested by chemists for the past fifty years, and has always been found absolutely pure and to contain great medicinal properties.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It is the one absolutely pure medicinal whiskey and is sold only in sealed bottles—never in bulk. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist" on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Price $1.00. Illustrated medical booklet and doctor's advice free. LOCAL DOGS ARE WINNERS

BENCH SHOW OPENS IN EARNEST AND CROWDS THROUGH THE ARMORY.

Judging Started Monday Afternoon, and Several Classes Disposed of. No Accidents.

Mary had a little dog. She put it on the shelf. And every time it wagged its tail it spanked its little self.

The Armory was just about the busiest place in town Monday, for up until noon the owners kept arriving with their dogs, and they were benched for the afternoon exhibition. Every dog was placed by 1 o'clock, and the hall was then placed in readiness for the opening. Many people visited the show in the afternoon and looked their fill at the dogs of many kinds, and values, and the judging was started at the appointed time. The big crowd didn't arrive until evening, however, when all the dog lovers of Newark and vicinity seemed to crowd into the big room where the show is being held.

The stalls have been carefully arranged and plenty of room has been left in the aisles for the spectators. The kennels for the big dogs are arranged around the side walls, the Great Danes and St. Bernards are in the south end of the building, with kennels for the pointers directly in front of them with an aisle between. The collies, greyhounds and some of the pointers are placed along the east wall, while the bird dogs and setters are benched along the west wall. The north wall is lined with beagle stalls, with one section reserved for the collies. Along the inner circle are lined the fox terriers, coach dogs, bull dogs and bull terriers. On the inner circle facing the judges' stand, are cages holding the toy dogs. Boston terriers, bird dogs and others of the canine tribe. Everything is arranged with perfect system and all stands are numbered, the number on the kennels agreeing with the numbers in the program and guide.

The dogs entered from Newark made an excellent showing in Monday's judging, and the local fanciers can well be proud, considering the fact that they were forced in competition with dogs with national reputations. The show drew well Monday evening, but not as well as was expected by the members of the kennel club who have been at great expense in bringing the show to Newark.

The judging commenced at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon and the following prizes were awarded:

GROWERS AND BARKS.

Just about the busiest man in the Armory, excepting his honor the judge, was Harry Lippincott, secretary of the club. He has been "on the go" steadily since Saturday night.

Many women have already visited the show, and Monday night they were out in force.

The Earl, Dottie Dimple and Princess Loki, pups from the Eberhart kennels, have attracted much attention at the show.

Oku of Dalmore, a Japanese spaniel, valued at $1900, is on display. It is owned by the Eberhart kennels, and is owned by W. B. McCloud, of show.

Happy Hooligan is the smallest dog at the show. He is a toy terrier and is owned by W. B. McCloud of Hyattsville, O. Happy weighs just a pound and a quarter.

When Pitland and Nottingham Cuyahoga, English bull dogs were in the ring, their combined value was just $10,000.

THOUGHTS ON BUSINESS

BY
WALDO PONDRAY WARREN

BE A MAN FIRST

BEFORE one can be a sound business man he must first be a sound man. When an artist paints a picture containing human figures he must not try to hide defective proportions of a figure by the clothing, but must first make sure that the outline of the anatomy is correct before he attempts to paint the clothing. One of the worst faults a picture can have is to be "out of drawing." No amount of wonder-work in color or conception can atone for faults in the anatomy of the figures. And there are few to defend a picture in which there are serious faults of anatomy.

There are some persons in business life who think they can cover up the evidences of a defective manhood by laying on thick the colors of an outward business success. They think that if they can only get the place and the power they will also get the honor and the satisfaction that comes from worthy achievement. But like the unskilled artist, they deceive themselves most of all. Nothing can atone for defective character, and nothing can hide it. A few superficial persons may give undue credit to mere appearances, but the critics whose opinions determine the real standing of the work will not be deceived—and their criticisms will take away any shallow satisfaction that may be found in superficial applause. Nothing but sound manhood can win the true reward of sound manhood.

TAFT REVOLT IN FLORIDA

OTHER STATES IN UNION ARE LIKELY TO FOLLOW EXAMPLE OF FLORIDA.

Use of Federal Patronage to Secure Delegates Arouses Hostility to Administration.

(By Willis J. Abbott.)

Washington, D. C., Feb. 18.—The bitter fight in Florida over the delegations to the Republican national convention is only indicative of what is likely to happen in many of the southern states. The split in Florida is between the federal employees and the Republicans in that state. It is true that there are not very many Republicans in Florida. In 1901 the state cast for Roosevelt 8,311 votes, or less than one-quarter of the total vote. But even states in which there are no chances of electoral votes are useful prior to a national convention for votes in that convention. So Florida and Georgia, South Carolina and Mississippi, are being worked for Roosevelt or Taft delegations. Florida was first to revolt, and, having led the way, it seems probable that the other states will follow.

Florida, through its Republican convention, refused to endorse Taft. The Taft people say that the convention was bolted by the Fairbanks or possibly the Cannon advocates. The Fairbanks and Cannon people say that the convention was bolted by the Taft supporters. Few people at this end of the wires know which of these claims is right. As a matter of fact, it is not important which is correct. The important thing is that the first southern state to select a delegation to the Chicago convention has selected two and that there will be a contest first before the committee on credentials and afterward before the convention to determine which delegation from Florida shall be seated. And more. This Florida clash means much. The claim will be made at the Republican national convention that the delegates chosen and instructed for Taft were picked out by the federal officials in Florida. The question will be raised as to whether the administration has the right to use the power of federal patronage in order to secure delegates to a national convention. That Mr. Roosevelt is so using it everybody knows. From the Portland on the Pacific coast to the Portland on the Atlantic, from Key West to the Saint Ste. Marie, every federal officeholder is engaged in pressing the political purposes of the administration. As a civil service reformer Mr. Roosevelt was great in the days of his youth, but as a performer today, when he has power to accomplish something, he is a disappointment if not indeed a sham.

The Republican contest in Florida is not unique. It is as bitter in New York. But in the Empire State three-fifths at least of the Republicans will refuse to vote for Governor Hughes even if he should be nominated. It is savage in Wisconsin, where true Republicanism is represented by La Follette and the bogus brand by rich men who care only to defeat La Follette. The fight appears in Iowa, where Governor Cummins is slowly but surely driving out of public life the men who stand for what has come to be called the standard pat policy, has forced the retirement of two members of congress and will in all probability retire to private life Senator Allison, who has been in the senate over thirty years.

They talk about a divided Democracy. Democratic papers are foolish enough to use this term. But as a matter of fact the Democratic party was never more united, the Republican party never more torn by internal dissensions. There is not one man mentioned for the presidential nomination on the Republican side who could poll the full vote of his party.

The Republican Candidates.

Consider them. Take one after the other and judge what may be their strength or their weakness. First, Secretary Taft. He is weakened in his own party because he is merely the candidate of the president, who hopes to retain the control of the party. It is true, too, that in New York the Republican organization is split upon the Taft question. Many of the strongest men in the organization are for Hughes, and some are for Taft. There will be such a fight in New York state before and after the convention as may have a very serious effect upon the ticket nominated.

New England Republicans are divided on the question of the candidate. Only last week the Taft forces in Massachusetts retired from the effort to secure an instructed delegation. Senator Lodge had been attempting to secure such a delegation, but very prudently gave up the effort before he was beaten. New Hampshire and Vermont, which the administration tried to control, will also send uninstructed delegations. Apparently the entire New England strength at the Chicago convention will be at the service of the best bidder. This means that New England, the real citadel of Republicanism, is not ready today to accept the order of the president to nominate Taft or to endorse unreservedly the presidential policies. Illinois is absolutely and irreversibly for Cannon. Indiana has already instructed its delegates for Fairbanks.

There is no unity of purpose among the Republicans. There is hardly any candidate for their presidential nomination who has not even in his own state a hostile faction. Against Hughes is the Roosevelt element; against Fairbanks the friends of Beveridge; against Taft the Foraker forces; against La Follette the so-called stalwarts. Against everybody who is mentioned as even a possible Republican nominee there is aligned a bitter and an irreconcilable faction in his own state, a factional dissension which means the loss of votes.

Democratic Unity.

As against this obvious disunion on the Republican side is complete unity among Democrats. It is perfectly true that there are several possible candidates for the presidency in the Democratic party. This is as it should be. The Democracy does not want a cat and dried convention, with the nomination of any one man a foregone conclusion. The party wants several candidates and expects that the names of several men will be presented to its convention. No doubt Judson Harmon will have through his friends a hearing there. Doubtless the name of Senator Charles A. Culberson, the leader of the Democratic minority in the senate and a man against whose patriotism and Democracy no word of criticism can be uttered, will be offered for consideration. Probably, too, Governor John A. Johnson will be suggested to the delegates, and his work in the cause of Democracy in the northwest, where to be a Democrat means to take long chances politically, justifies a respectful hearing for the claims of his friends. Possibly Judge Gray of Delaware will have his state delegation, and it is just barely possible that Massachusetts may present the name of former Governor W. L. Douglas of that state.

But a multitude of candidates does not necessarily mean a number of factional fights. In the Democratic organization today there is no such a bitter personal factional fight as that which is tearing the Republican party to pieces in Ohio or in New York. In the Democratic convention every man will have his day in court. So far as I know, and I have been in a position to watch the matter rather carefully, no aspirant for the Democratic nomination has so conducted his campaign as to prevent either his receiving the loyal support of any other aspirant should he be nominated or to stop him from giving his own support to whomever may be the nominee of the convention.

The President and Labor.

Within a few days, possibly before the publication of this letter, President Roosevelt will send in another message which will probably make the conservative element in his party stand against. This one is going to be chiefly on labor questions. It is going to urge amendments of the antitrust law so that it can no longer be used, as thus far it has been chiefly used, against organized labor. The administration has been alarmed by the three decisions of the United States supreme court bearing upon the labor question within the last two or three months. Every decision has been against the interests of labor and the working people in general. It is true that the administration is not responsible and should not be held responsible for what the United States supreme court may do. But it so happens that every law which the court has had occasion to construe bearing upon the labor question has been a Republican law, and two or three of these statutes were enacted during the reign of Roosevelt. The court has declared unconstitutional the act making employers liable for damages for accidents occurring to employees during the prosecution of their duties. It has prohibited the boycott as a combination in restraint of trade. A lesser United States court has even declared that to publish the name of a firm as "unfair" is illegal. These decisions, coming one fast upon the heels of the other, have naturally worried the president, who is very much in politics today. His pet candidate for the Republican nomination, Secretary Taft, is somewhat unpopular in labor circles because of the eagerness with which when he was United States judge he seized upon the device of government by injunction and gave it the widest use that it received anywhere in the United States.

There was talk enough about Taft's hostility to labor before these decisions were handed down. As a result the whole politics of the administration recently has been directed toward correcting the feeling among the members of organized labor that Taft and the administration do not stand for its interests. One illustration of this has been the sudden removal from office of Public Printer Stillings. Mr. Stillings had been public printer for nearly two years despite the bitter protests of representatives of the Federation of Labor and of other organizations. On the labor side Stillings was charged with having systematically violated the statute fixing eight hours as the working day in all United States offices or shops. More serious charges were brought against him bearing upon his personal relations with contracting firms having supplies to sell to the government printing office. The fight upon him was really led by the labor unions and has ended in complete victory, although only six months ago Mr. Roosevelt wrote a letter to a representative of one of the unions cautioning him for having complained about the method by which Stillings was allowing out union men from the printing office and replacing them as rapidly as possible with non-union men. The president seems to have seen a new light on this subject, but his very isolated a firm in removing Stillings makes one wonder whether the next approach of a nominating convention and a presidential campaign had not something to do with it. One of the very best events in the history of St. Luke's Commandery, No. 34, Knights Templar of this city was the annual reunion and banquet of the Commandery held on Monday evening, February 17, 1908, in Masonic Hall. These reunions, which are annual events with St. Luke's Commandery, are looked forward to with eager anticipation by both the Knights and their ladies as the swell social function of the year, and the reunion held Monday night will go down on the records as the reunion par excellence of them all.

Arrangements have been making for some time for the function and committees of picked men had charge of all the arrangements.

One of the most enjoyable features of the occasion Monday night was the fact that the members of Coshocton Commandery, Knights Templar, together with their ladies, were in attendance and contributed much to the pleasures of the evening. The train bringing the Coshocton delegation to Newark arrived here between six and seven o'clock. The delegation was met at the Fairbank depot by the following members of the reception committee and escorted to the Asylum where a short reception was had: Ed. S. Walter, F. P. Jones, Wm. Cunningham, Thomas M. Jones, William Neal, Lewis P. Schaus, William H. Sedgwick, Henry C. Bostwick, Harry Swisher, William Allen Veach, Edward H. Franklin, Joseph L. Worth, F. L. Berge and F. M. B. Winkle. The wives of the above Past Exalted Commanders acted as a reception committee to the Coshocton ladies and met them at the Asylum.

After spending a short time in getting acquainted all adjourned to the banquet hall where a splendid turkey dinner was served at 7 o'clock, and never did tables in a banquet hall look prettier, decorated as they were with beautiful and fragrant flowers.

After all had thoroughly enjoyed the bountiful spread the great majority of those present repaired to Assembly Hall, where dancing was engaged in and continued until one o'clock Tuesday morning, the splendid music being furnished by Marsh's orchestra. Those who did not care to participate in the delights of the ball room, repaired to the Asylum where they spent the evening most delightfully in card playing and in having a good social time. During the evening a splendid buffet lunch was served to nearly two hundred people at Assembly Hall.

The committees having the matter in charge were as follows:

Refreshment committee—Joseph L. Worth, Thomas W. Tabler, Herbert H. Harris; entertainment committee: At Asylum—A. R. Pitzer, A. L. Rawlings, Wm. H. Chilcoat Sr.; At Assembly Hall—Ben B. GOOD HOME REMEDY

Anyone Can Prepare This Mixture
Which is Said to Readily Relieve Catarrh.

The coming months will be a hard one for the doctors and patent medicine manufacturers unless great care is taken to keep the feet dry, also dress warmly.

This is the advice of a well-known authority and should be heeded by all who are subject to rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles and especially catarrh. While the latter is considered by most sufferers an incurable disease, there are few men or women who will fail to experience great relief from the following simple home prescription, and if taken in time it will prevent an attack of catarrh during the entire season.

Here is the prescription which any one can mix: Fluid Extract Dandelion one-half ounce, Compound Sarsaparilla three ounces. Shake well in a bottle, and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

These are mostly vegetable ingredients and can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy at small cost.

The Compound Sarsaparilla in this prescription acts directly upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys to make them filter and strain from the blood, the poisons that produce all forms of catarrhal affections. Relief is often felt even after the first few doses and it is seldom that the sufferer ever experiences a return attack within the year.

This prescription makes a splendid remedy for all forms of blood disorders and such symptoms as rheumatism, bladder weaknesses and lame back pains are entirely dispelled.

As this valuable though simple recipe comes from a thoroughly reliable source, it should be heeded by every afflicted reader.

Remember This Recipe For Cold and Cough Cure

Simple as it is, there is nothing better for colds and stubborn coughs. Tastes pleasant, too, and can be made at home at small cost.

Granulated Sugar Syrup, 1 1/2 oz. Pinex 2 1/2 oz.

The 2 1/2 oz. of Pinex will cost you 50 cents at any drug store. Put the Pinex in a pint bottle, then fill it up with the Granulated Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours, as required. The pint is enough to last a family a long time. Well corked, it keeps indefinitely.

Pinex is the most concentrated form of Norway white pine extract. It is rich in all the elements that have made the Norwegian pine forests famous in curing consumption and other membrane diseases.

In making up this prescription, do not expect good results unless you use Pinex. It may be that some druggists do not have it, but they can get it for you easily if requested to do so.

Take Care of Your Lungs

It is impossible to take too much care of your lungs. The little tickling in the throat may be but a trifle, but when it gains a foothold in the delicate cells of the lungs, bad results follow.

Dr. Black's Cough Syrup

Is the best remedy for throat and lung trouble. Take it when the cough first starts and it will quickly cure it. The worst thing for a cough is to keep on coughing.

Plaintiff married the defendant some six or eight years ago and alleged habitual drunkenness and cruelty on the part of the defendant. The testimony showed that the defendant, about one year after their marriage, commenced a system of brutality against his wife, knocking her down and otherwise abusing her. UMPIRES

FOR COMING SEASON IN OHIO STATE LEAGUE ANNOUNCED BY QUINN.

ARE WELL RECOMMENDED

Umpires Must Command Respect of Players and People and Such is Staff Signed.

In a letter to the sporting editors of the various papers in the Ohio State league, President Bobby Quinn announces the appointment of the three indicator handlers for the coming season. The first man signed was E. S. Handboe of Washington, D. C. Handboe is highly recommended by J. Ed. Grillo, former president of the American Association, but now sporting editor of the Washington Post. Mr. Grillo has seen him work as have major league men who are warm in their praise of him. He was on the Virginia State league staff last season but thinking the Ohio State offers better opportunities he signed with President Bob.

O. E. Sheldon comes from Paxton, Ill., and for the past three years he has umpired all the major league and college games played at the University of Illinois. Heretofore he has refused to umpire professionally on account of a government position, but owing to a change of the party in power he will come with the Ohio State staff April 1st. He is recommended by such people as Frank Huff, athletic instructor of University of Illinois, and Sid Mercer, sporting editor of the New York Globe. He has umpired the spring games for a great many major league clubs and, they were well satisfied with his work.

Frank Limerick hails from Marysville, Ky. He has been umpiring in an independent circuit throughout West Virginia and Kentucky, and has also handled the indicators at college games at Marietta. He is given a high rating by the clubs in the circuit and by the Marietta college men.

"In the selection of the umpires I have not only taken into consideration their knowledge of the game, and their ability to handle the men on the field, but I have also inquired into their mode of living and moral character," continued President Bob in his letter. "I believe the actions of the umpire off the field cuts as much figure as regards the respect of the players and the public will show him, as any one thing in his make-up. I will therefore insist upon any umpire working in the Ohio State League, conducting himself at all times, both on and off the field, in such a manner as to command the respect of the very best people in each of the cities of the circuit."

The promoters of the Ohio State League banded themselves together with the aim to furnish the public good, clean, up-to-date, aggressive base ball, and the players will be forced to conduct themselves in a proper manner at all times, or suffer the consequences. The owners have decided to make a special effort to interest the ladies and to conduct their parks as to merit the patronage of the very best people in their respective cities.

In closing his letter, President Bob says that a meeting will be held early in March to adopt a schedule and to make final arrangements for the opening of the season.

RAILWAY AFFAIRS

Penny to Spend $2,000,000.

The announcement made by the Pennsylvania railroad company that it has placed orders for 35,000 tons of steel rails to be delivered during the present year involving an expenditure of more than $2,000,000 is one of the most cheering signs of the times. The action of the Pennsylvania assumes an even more cheerful significance in view of the contrary policy being pursued by some of its railway competitors.

Old Business Enjoyed.

The B. O. as a great coal, coke and steel carrying road, tapping the Pittsburgh district, was one of the first to feel the effects of the business depression, and for a time business was completely dead. Each day old trains have been put on, however, until the old business is being enjoyed.

Business Increasing.

Business on the B. & O. which has been very dull for the past several months is again on the increase and nearly the usual number of through freights are being operated. Last month a number of locomotives were taken off and put in white lead at the Garrett shops. These have again been put in service. Reports from the eastern divisions of the road are similar.

Refrigerator Car on Traction Line.

A refrigerator car has been added to the equipment of the traction lines in Northern Indiana, and will be used in the daily distribution of fresh meats to dealers in towns touched by the trolleys. This innovation is very likely to be followed by all the trolley systems in this section and will give a daily market to all smaller towns.

Will be Held in Columbus.

Great preparations are being made by the Railway Trainmen in Columbus to help entertain the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, which organization holds its national convention in Columbus this year, while next year the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen will also convene in Columbus.

Swearing Barred.

The Pennys does not allow its employees to swear. A new set of rules has been posted declaring that profane language shall not be used by the men while at work. No specific penalty is set forth, but it is understood that violation will be punished by enforced vacation.

Uniform Accounting.

The rapid increase in interline passenger and freight traffic over the electric trolley systems of Ohio, Indiana and Michigan has made imperative the adoption of uniform accounting systems, and a meeting of the Auditing Conference of the Central Electric Railway association was held last week. The handling of interline claims, settlements at junction points, overcharge, excess, interline ticket balances and uniform blanks for ticket and freight accounts were taken up and preliminary agreements entered into.

YOUNG MAN HAS NEW THEORY

Human Life Seems Centered In Stomach.
All Else Is Secondary.

The immense success which has followed L. T. Cooper during the past year with his new preparation has exceeded anything of the kind ever before witnessed in most of the leading cities where the young man has introduced the medicine. Cooper has a novel theory. He believes that the human stomach is directly responsible for most disease. To quote his own words from an interview upon his arrival in an eastern city: "The average man or woman cannot be sick if the stomach is working properly. To be sure, there are diseases of a virulent nature, such as cancer, tuberculosis, diabetes, etc., which are organic, and are not traceable to the stomach, but even fevers can, in nine cases out of ten, be traced to something taken into the stomach. All of this half-sick, nervous exhaustion that is now so common, is caused by the stomachic conditions, and it is because my remedy will and does regulate the stomach that I am meeting with such success."

To sum the matter up—a sound digestive apparatus that is doing its full duty, getting every particle of vitality out of all food by transferring it to the bowels in a perfectly digested state—this above all else brings health."

Mr. A. C. Brock, chief of the Brock Restaurant, Market Street, Boston, Mass., who is a staunch believer in Mr. Cooper's theory and medicine, has this to say: "I had chronic indigestion for over three years. I suffered terribly, and lost about thirty pounds. I was a physical wreck when I started this Cooper medicine, a month or so ago. Today I am as well as I ever was in my life. I am no longer nervous, my food does not distress me in the least, and I have a splendid appetite. I am gaining flesh very rapidly—in fact, at the rate of a pound a day. I would not believe any medicine of earth could have done for me what this has done. It is a remarkable preparation, and Mr. Cooper deserves all his success."

We recommend the Cooper preparations as being remarkable medicines.

FRANTIC WOMEN

Organic disturbances of the feminine system act like a firebrand on the nerves of women, often driving them fairly frantic.

A nervous, irritable woman is a source of misery not only to herself, but to all those who come under her influence. That such conditions can be entirely overcome by taking is proven by the following letters.

Mrs. Mary Wood, of Christiana, Tenn., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I had the worst form of female troubles and my nerves were all torn to pieces; sometimes I suffered so much that it seemed as though I could not live. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now I feel like a different person. Your medicine is worth its weight in gold, and I cannot say enough for your advice."

Mrs. Wallace Wilson, Thompsonville, Conn., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I was all run down, nervous, and could not rest nights. Doctors failed to help me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to perfect health."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

MOTHER AND BABE

Appear at Workhouse and Asked to be Allowed to Stay Near Her Husband.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 18.—The young wife of John Paczkowski, a prisoner at the workhouse, appeared there with her baby in her arms and begged that she be permitted to stay. The arrest of her husband left her homeless and without money. "We can't stay in the street," she pleaded, sobbing. "Please let me stay near him."

Mrs. O'Reilly, wife of the superintendent, took the girl and baby to her own apartments and will keep them until they can be provided for.

The young husband sold the stuff they had bought on installment and was arrested.

PREDICTED COLE WILL WIN OUT

Marysville, O., Feb. 18.—The Ohio Republican congressional convention is preparing for one of the hottest fights in the history of the district here this afternoon, when the supporters of six strong candidates will cast their ballots for their favorites. The convention met this morning with S. S. Deaton, of Urbana as temporary chairman. Congressman Ralph Cole, unless all political signs fail, seems to be the strongest, and his nomination for a third term is freely predicted.

BREWERY WORKMEN

Of International Union of America Submit Letter to Public and Organized Labor.

To the Public in General and Organized Labor in Particular.

Greeting:—We, the United Brewery Workers of America, an organization of men employed in the brewing industry, and 44,000 in number, beg leave to submit to your kind consideration the following:

Not since the early eighties has temperance fanaticism developed such zeal and strength as now, and it is time that we raise our voice against a movement, which if it were successful in the whole country, would be disastrous not only to us, but to the economic interests of the whole nation, and not only to these, but also to its physical welfare and moral status.

Prohibition—and we use it in its general and most comprehensive sense, including every species of liquor legislation, except a reasonable license law, involving a reasonable regulation of the traffic,—is an insult to American manhood. It is especially an insult to the American workingman, against whom it is principally directed. For this reason, and because no other class would suffer so much if the prohibition became general, as the working class, we protest against all legislation prohibitive in its character, and we have no doubt that this sentiment is shared by the large majority of the American workingmen. They cannot, like the wealthy, rent or build club-houses, the doors of which are closed to police officers; they cannot stock their cellars and ice-boxes with costly wines and fine liquors, yet they have the same need of society and the same physical needs. And of what needs these are, the men of what needs the sweat of their brows, in the engine-room, or the mill, or the shop, or the mine, or before the fiery furnace, are better able to judge than the kid-gloved or misjudged temperance people, who pretend to love the working people, but have never raised a finger to help them in their various struggles for better working and living conditions.

Have the temperance fanatics ever given a thought to the question of what would become of the hundreds of thousands who would be bereaved of their means of living, if prohibition became general? Did they ever seriously consider the disastrous consequences of the destruction of so large an industry as the brewing industry, and how it would affect the other industries? Did they ever consider that prohibition in our country would take away the bread from the mouths of millions of men, women and children, who would be dumped upon the labor market, or made paupers?

Yes, a million! According to the census of 1900, the number of wage-earners employed in the manufacture of beer was 45,000, and in the manufacture of liquor and wines, 25,000—together 70,000, which has probably grown since to 100,000. According to Bulletin 20 and 45 of the Census Bureau, there were in 1903 in all cities over 8,000 inhabitants, 82,940 licensed saloons; there were probably from 15,000 to 20,000 in the smaller cities and towns, which would make 100,000. Doubling the number to include bootleggers, porters, waiters, etc., would make the number of men owning and being employed in saloons 200,000. In addition thereto, we must consider the thousands of men employed in the industries furnishing supplies and raw materials for the breweries and distilleries, such as the malt-houses, glass-mills, the men working in the distilleries, the bottle and the rubber factories, and the coopers, the box-makers, wagon makers, harness makers, horseshoers, brushmakers, machinists, farmers and their employees, etc.

Then think of the men employed in the ice factories, that furnish ice to the saloon-keepers; of those employed in the factories that furnish ice-chests and saloon furniture, and consider how many men are needed to produce so much of these things as are needed by the brewers, distillers and saloon-keepers, and you will not hesitate to add another 100,000 to the 200,000 already mentioned that would be thrown out of employment by general prohibition, making their number 400,000, who with their families would make an army of a million human beings robbed of their means of existence.

What it would mean to the workingmen if 400,000 more men were forced to compete for wages on the labor market, with the industry and the trade that formerly gave them employment entirely wiped out, in an age when handicraft is constantly more and more superseded by machine labor, and in which the labor market is always overburdened, even intelligent workingmen fully comprehend.

Between 1899 and 1900, the brewers spent annually about $20,000,000 for machinery and $6,000,000 annually for buildings, thereby giving employment to thousands of men in these crafts and callings.

The brewers, maltsters and distillers of the United States consume in their products every year:

36,261,675 bushels of corn, $27,274,208
62,790,000 bushels of barley, 62,790,000

5,595,000 bushels of rye, 3,916,889
Sugar products, hops and assorted grain 16,358,000
Labor (producers only) 54,540,000
Coal and other fuel 5,000,000
Lumber, rubber goods, steam engines, machinery, tools, steam fittings, plumbers' supplies, wagons, harnesses, bulldozers' supplies, glass, filtering material, chemical supplies, paint and varnish, furniture, brushes, packing house products, advertising signs 150,000,000
Fire insurance premiums 15,000,000
Railroad, freight and express 20,000,000

Making a total paid to producing sources of the United States of $354,849,097
These industries pay annually state and government license amounting to $68,875,465, and an internal revenue to the government during the fiscal year 1906-07 alone of $208,295,449.63.

In addition, they pay city license, real estate and personal property taxes aggregating to the enormous total of $70,000,000.

The continued growth of prohibition and the destruction of the brewing and the distilling industries will result in the allied trades in all lines of manufacture being made to suffer great losses through the destroyed market for their product.

The unemployed in the large cities at the present time number many thousands, who are clamoring for food and shelter. The prohibition movement, if allowed to expand will certainly aggravate these conditions by adding many thousands to the number of unemployed, and overloading the taxpayer, by compelling him to shoulder expenses now borne by the industries that certain fanatics are attempting to put out of business. It will put in jeopardy the livelihood of upwards of four million people, and precipitate the greatest financial crisis this country has ever known.

We, the Brewery Workers, have, probably, a better cause to take the initiative in the protest against prohibitive and restrictive legislation than other workingmen.

Prohibition is prohibition in principle and effect, whether it is state-wide or local. It is destructive of good citizenship, and especially dangerous to organized labor, economically and morally. Its ineffectiveness results in the constantly keeping alive of the question, thereby detracting attention from other matters, which economically and politically are of importance to organized labor.

AMUSEMENTS

LITTLE JOHNNY JONES.

That this city is to be visited by last season's biggest musical comedy success, "Little Johnny Jones," convey with the announcement so much genuine pleasure to our theater goers and has already excited so much interest with the general public that it is an assured fact that the Auditorium on Tuesday evening will be crowded to its utmost capacity on this occasion. "Little Johnny Jones" by its long run of six months in New York and over four months in Chicago, with the important engagement in Boston, Philadelphia, Washington, Baltimore, and St. Louis, and all the leading cities last season and this firmly established itself as one of the most notable attractions in America. It is describable as one of the crispest, snappiest and brightest musical comedies this country has witnessed for several years. It is said to be superior to the majority of its kind in that it has more of a story than they have.

THE MAYOR OF LAUGHLAND.

Judging from the interest already manifested the appearance of Tom Waters and his company in "The Mayor of Laughland" at the Auditorium next Monday evening will be an event of the greatest importance to local theater goers. Waters is very well known and well liked in this part of the country. His friends will be pleased to learn that Messrs. Nixon & Zimmerman who have developed so many stars, now have this young comedian under a long contract, and have given him a most elaborate production for his first tour under their management.

THE VALUE OF PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE

Personal knowledge is the winning factor in the culminating contests of this competitive age and of ample character it places its fortunate possessor in the front ranks of

The Well Informed of the World.

A vast fund of personal knowledge is really essential to the achievement of the highest excellence in any field of human effort.

A Knowledge of Forms, Knowledge of Functions and Knowledge of Products are all of the utmost value and in questions of life and health when a true and wholesome remedy is desired it should be remembered that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., is an ethical product which has met with the approval of the most eminent physicians and gives universal satisfaction, because it is a remedy of

Known Quality, Known Excellence and Known Component

Parts and has won the valuable patronage of millions of the Well Informed of the world, who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual use that it is the first and best of family laxatives, for which no extravagant or unreasonable claims are made.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent family laxative. As its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well Informed of the world to be the best we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of—Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects, always note, when purchasing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, whether you call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

GREAT SOUTHERN THEATRE.
"Mrs. Temple's Telegram" will be artistically presented at the Great Southern Theatre, Columbus, on Monday and Tuesday, February 24 and 25.

The Al G. Field Minstrels will appear at the Great Southern Wednesday, February 26. Billy Clark, the quaintest comedian on the minstrel stage, is again with the Field show, and from all accounts he is still the sparkling essential old-time minstrelsy. Boardman S. Carnes is interlocutor.

What will doubtless constitute the highest class engagement of the season at the Great Southern, will be that on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, February 27, 28 and 29, of the eminent actor, Robert Mantell, in his classic Shakespeare repertoire. It was only several seasons ago that Mr. Mantell appeared in New York in a Shakespeare role and electrified his audience. Everywhere he appeared he is greeted by capacity audiences made up of teachers and the professional public, as well as the general public. He is accepted by everyone as the ablest impersonator today of these great Shakespearean roles.

Louisville is named after Louis XVI of France.

CITY COUNCIL

BRIEF SESSION MONDAY NIGHT
CONSIDERS SECOND STREET
SUBWAY.Action to Meet Legislative Committee Which Will Visit Newark to Inspect Canal Project.

The City Council's session Monday night lasted but thirty minutes. The principal matters taken up were the report of the street committee, in which the petition for the Second street subway was favored and immediate action recommended, and the adoption of a resolution, introduced by Mr. Fulton, instructing the B. P. S. to have the city engineer draw up plans and the cost of material needed to proceed with the subway.

The city engineer had already drafted a set of plans for the proposed improvement, and while probably very good, it is desired that the matter come to the council by means of the B. P. S. and on proper authority.

In response to a request, Mr. Taylor, of the board of Public Service, submitted a report of the material necessary for the proposed extension of the water works system. The report follows:

Six-inch pipe, 60,650 feet.
Eight-inch pipe, 24,900 feet.
Sixteen-inch pipe, 775 feet.
Cast iron specials, 2387 tons.
Hydrants to be put in, 145.
Hydrants now in, 177.
Total hydrants when pipe is in, 322.
Miles of pipe, 15.6.

Secretary J. M. Maylone of the Board of Trade, stated to the council that the Legislative commission appointed to consider Representative Howard's bill to fill the canal to Sixth street, had accepted the board's invitation to visit the city. Secretary Maylone requested that members of the council meet with the commission on Friday, February 28. President Russell appointed the council as a committee of the whole to meet the Columbus party.

It appears that the residents of West Newark are fearful lest they be left out of the proposed improvement and Councilman Orr said that the residents of this part of the city feel that while the matter is being taken up with the state, the canal should be filled to the city limit if possible to get the legislature to do so. Mr. Maylone replied that the board was of the opinion that if the waterway could be closed as far as Sixth street now, the question of taking the finishing step in the work could be well taken up sometime a little later.

Petitions were received and filed as follows:

By Mr. Flohr: That lots 838 and 839 of Commodore Brown's addition, not be assessed for sewers because of the fact that the sewer ditch is not deep enough at this point.

By Mr. Orr: For the improvement of Day avenue, West Newark. The petition was signed by 15 property owners, representing 1000 feet frontage.

The resolutions providing for the appropriation of property for street purposes in Burlington and Smith avenue (South Arch street) were given their third readings and adopted.

The law committee was not ready with its report on the High street paving matter brought up in last regular meeting.

This medicine holds the world's healing record for coughs and colds and lung and throat diseases. It prevents pneumonia. Sold under guarantee at F. D. Hall's drug store. 50c and $1. LENT

Begins Two Weeks From Wednesday
Ash Wednesday Comes On March
Fourth—Forty Days Fast.

Have you decided what you are going to do without during Lent? Its about time you made up your mind for the forty days' fast will commence just two weeks from next Wednesday. Members of the Episcopal and the Roman Catholic churches are usually more strict in observing Lent than other Christians are, and usually during this period all dances and theatres are avoided.

Its observance is very ancient though it is not thought to be an apostolical institution and coming just before Easter its reason is very evident. Originally it lasted forty hours, but it was stretched to thirty-six days and either Gregory the Great or Gregory II, nearly a hundred years later, added Ash Wednesday and the remainder of the week, making the entire time of abstinence forty days.

Formal affairs are usually done away with during this time, but informal affairs are usually a serious and for some reason or other the best shows and some of the most enjoyable dances seem to come just at this time.

A Lap Full of Wild Gourds.

"A Lap Full of Wild Gourds" will be Rev. J. E. Shannon's subject at the United Brethren church tonight. Quite a large Monday night audience was present to hear him last night. A number of visiting pastors were present, among whom was Rev. J. B. Bovey, a former pastor of the church and now pastor of the United Brethren church at Lancaster, O.

Rev. Mr. Shannon again emphasized the truth that the Christian religion did not consist in subscribing to any or all confessions of faith or to any creed but it was a work of grace in the heart.

He will speak every afternoon and evening of this week. The afternoon meetings at 2 p. m. will be in the form of Bible readings on some of the evidences of the spirits indwelling. Bring your Bibles to the afternoon meetings.

MUSICIAN SUICIDES.
